Expectations and Policies

What to Expect from the Instructor

The best way to communicate with your instructor is via email. Always include in the subject of your email “Online COMM 3355” When sending an email and your name. All emails will be answered within 48 hrs. Graded assignments will be posted a week after the submission date.

Participation

Your active participation extremely important! There will be an opportunity to discuss and interact with classmates through discussion questions and assignments, which will be graded. Please refer to the “method of evaluation” section for discussion questions and assignments’ points and value.
Academic Dishonesty Statement

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion.

- Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports.
- Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents another person’s words or ideas as his or her own.
- Collusion involves unauthorized collaboration with another person or group to commit any academically dishonest act.

Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution for possible disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from UTEP for such actions. You can find more information in the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures, under the heading “Alleged Student Scholastic Dishonesty,” and in the Regents’ Rules and Regulations.

Late Policy

Deadlines for all quizzes, discussion questions and written assignments will be strictly enforced. No quizzes, discussion questions or written assignments will be accepted after deadline. Missing a deadline is equivalent of not doing the assignment. Professionals must meet strict deadlines. Students are expected to do the same.

Library Information

Access the UTEP Library by visiting http://libraryweb.utep.edu/.

Responsible, Ethical and Effective Electronic Communication

It is important to share a word of caution so we can become wiser about interpersonal distance learning communications. In an online environment, many of the feelings or impressions that are transmitted via body language in face-to-face communications are lost. Consequently, interpreting emotions and innuendos can be difficult. Only what is written, or drawn, carries the message. Often, excitement can be misinterpreted as anger or insult. We all need to keep this in mind as we communicate.

Words in print may seem harmless, but they can injure us emotionally when working at a distance. Hence, we must be conscious of how we communicate while working at a distance and use good netiquette, that is, online communication etiquette. For example, your classmates may not know who is posting a comment, so clearly identify yourself when posting to a discussion board. Furthermore, avoid using all capital letters in electronic communication, as all caps come across as shouting.
The standard netiquette for participation in networked discussion requires that all comments focus on the topic at hand, without becoming personalized, and be substantive in nature. In other words, you certainly may disagree with others, but you must do so respectfully. You may express strong beliefs or emotions, but you may not get so carried away that you lose all perspective on the course itself.

You can find more information on netiquette, the etiquette of Internet communication, at www.albion.com/netiquette.

Disability Statement

If you have a disability and need classroom accommodations, please contact The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email at cass@utep.edu, or visit the office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106.

For additional information, please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass.

The University Writing Center Services:

The University Writing Center offers free synchronous online one-on-one writing assistance for UTEP Connect students. Graduate and undergraduate consultants work with writers on projects for a wide variety of classes and provide assistance during all parts of the writing process, including: prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing. Online assistance is available by appointment through the UWC’s website (uwc.utep.edu). Most UWC consultants are bilingual Spanish and English speakers. Consultants will not edit your paper for you, and you are the one ultimately responsible for the work you submit and the grade you earn. Instead, Writing Center consultants will guide you through the writing process and teach you valuable writing skills. Visit the UWC’s website to learn more about the services they provide, or make an appointment for an online consultation. Online consultations take place during regular business hours (see website) and must be made at least one day in advance.

Have a great learning experience!

Final Organizational Communication Application Paper

(Due Sunday December 4th, 11:00 PM MST) (Total Points: 90)

Instructions:

The purpose of this document is to do an analysis on the diverse theories/concepts learned during our COMM 3355 course and describe how we can apply these concepts to our professional careers. Write a 4-5 page paper in which you include the following components:

Part A: Individual Conceptualization of Organizational Communication (30 Points):

- Based on the diverse concepts/theories discussed in our book, how would you define Organizational Communication?
- Why is the study of Organizational Communication relevant and valuable to contemporary organizations?

Part B: Practical Application (30 Points):

- Which theoretical concepts from the ones discussed in Chapters 2-6 do you feel have a stronger practical application in your current (or more recent) organization/workplace?
- How can your current (or most recent) organization/workplace benefit from better understanding Organizational Communication theories/concepts?
- Why?

Part C: Professional Competitive Advantage (30 Points):

- Describe how the material covered in this course might help you become a more competitive professional.
- Provide two specific examples directly related to how you can apply the knowledge learned in class to your chosen professional/academic life.

Your paper should include:

- An Introduction, proper transitions between sections (include titles) and a strong Conclusion/closing statement.
- Use proper citations in APA style where applicable.

Deadline to submit your final reflection paper is December 4th, 11:00 PM MST
