Sanford Guide Institutional License
Registration Instructions

Web Access
- All employees can access Sanford Guide content from any computer on-site by visiting https://webedition.sanfordguide.com/.
- Off-site access may be available through VPN or your institution’s proxy server. Check with your library or reference manager for information.
- If your institution is subscribed to Stewardship Assist, localized guidelines and antibiograms may also be available within the site. Local guidelines will be located in your institutional directory, on some Sanford Guide content pages, and in the Antimicrobial Spectra of Activity (accessed through your institutional directory or under the Tables and Tools menu).

Mobile Access
- All employees may register for free access to Sanford Guide content via mobile app.
- iPhone, iPad, Windows 10, and Android devices are supported.
- If your institution is subscribed to Stewardship Assist, localized guidelines and antibiograms will also be available within the app.

To register for mobile access:
2. Enter your name and e-mail address, then click the “Register” button.
3. Your access will be authenticated and you will be asked for some additional information. Fill out the form and click “Register” to proceed.
4. You will be taken to the Sanford Guide Online Store, where you can complete your registration. Follow the on-screen instructions.

5. Once you have completed your registration, you will receive a receipt via e-mail immediately, and a second e-mail with installation instructions within five minutes. Once the second message arrives, your account will be fully registered and you will be able to access content using the instructions provided. If you do not receive either message, please check your Junk or Spam filter.

6. Once per year, we will send you an e-mail with a link to re-authenticate your subscription. Please add admin@sanfordguide.com to your Contacts list to ensure that this message is received successfully. No marketing messages will be sent from this address.

7. If you experience any difficulty during the registration process, ensure that you have followed the instructions and then contact techsupport@sanfordguide.com for assistance.
